

2017 Round 1: September 17 & 18

by Racers, for Racers

5 for 1

Five Questions for the New #1 Plate Holder: Dale Kieffer

1. What's the deal with Dale? How is it, after all these years you're able to stay motivated and race at the top with the talented youth?

Well, I don't think the fire for competitiveness ever goes away. I think that life and priorities start getting in the way, along with trying to stay healthy and in shape. There are many talented riders (young and old) in this sport and to still be able to be competitive with them, gives me a sense of satisfaction.

2. How does one focus on competing for the number 1 plate, while also being arguably the busiest tire guy in the paddock?

Yea, That's a pretty good hat trick! I used to work in the Circus as a Juggler!! "Just kidding."

I don't want to take away from my commitment to provide the best tire service possible. But being able to ride and to give feedback on the tires at a competitive level, gives me an edge. I don't want to be the salesman, trying to sell someone just a tire. I want to be able to give each rider the most precise and detailed information on the tires that I can, so they can make more accurate decisions on what they want to run.

3. You've raced at clubs all over the country, what makes CVMA unique?

There have been some great racing organizations in the US over the years and CVMA ranks right there with the best of 'em! I love the fact that it's run by Racers. A race organization should be run similar to a business in the sense that you have to start changing your business model to fit the clientele and CVMA does that!

4. Are you planning on trying to defend the 1-plate again, or are you going back to a tire guy support role?

You can't own the #1 plate and not come out and defend it!

The "Tire Guy Role" comes first though, then we'll get on with some racing. I do a lot of riding with my private days and coaching, so I don't need a ton of laps to get up to speed for racing.

5. How is it you keep you hair in such fine shape all the time?

I have to thank my parents for some wonderful hair genes. Thanks, Mom & Dad!!

Final Thoughts:

I do have to say that even though my family doesn't make it out to many of the events, they do love and support my passion!
